Trustees Asked To Oust 'MA Barrier'

Although lauding the Jefferson Elementary School Board for the newly adopted salary range, Dr. Oscar Anderson of the California Teachers association Wednesday night criticized the "Master barrier" retained in the schedule.

Dr. Anderson met with the board and teachers salary committee at an informal meeting at Colma school.

The board adopted a salary schedule May 11 over protests by the teachers who insisted that their main purpose in asking for a revised schedule was to substitute units in graduate work for the Masters degree now required for pay boosts.

The board's adopted schedule calls for approximately a one per cent blanket increase, amounting to a total of $6000 per year.

Teachers' salary proposal would have upped pay by $56,000.

The board can again change the schedule up until June 30. A decision on the schedule will be reached at a special board meeting Wednesday night, according to Superintendent H. Z. Weibel.

"If you adopt this salary range and eliminate the Master barrier you will have a good schedule," Dr. Anderson announced at Wednesday's meeting.

Defeating Purpose

He explained that the board is defeating their purpose in requiring a Masters, in that in trying to make it harder for a teacher to reach the higher pay classifications, they are, in reality, making it easier.

The teachers' recommended proposal included six education steps: B.A. or less, B.A. plus 15 units, B.A. plus 30 units, B.A. plus 45 units, and B.A. plus 60 units.

In the schedule passed by the board, a Master's degree is required in the last three classifications. A Masters is roughly equivalent to 30 units of graduate work.

"A wide background is needed by an elementary teacher, and it can not be obtained with an M.A.," Anderson stated. "The type of ability needed to gain an advanced degree is not the same as that needed by a classroom teacher."

M.A.—"Easy Way"

He told the board that in gaining a Masters degree, a teacher is taking the "easy way" because the concentration is on the teacher's best subject.

"It is far wiser to establish a committee to evaluate the teach-

If you have been confused by the on-and-off status of the polio vaccine, as reported in this paper, don't think it's because you're just dull.

The county health department boss H. D. CHOPE had this to say under the heading, "Snafu in polio program":

"We are so confused at the time of writing this, that the less we say the better. Please watch your local newspaper headlines, the television and listen to the radio—after all that's where we get our information these days!"

Hearing For Ousted Cop Set June 17

Public hearing for David H. Johnstone Jr., ousted police inspector, has been set for June 17, according to John Degliantoni, chairman of the civil service board of review. The hearing will begin in the council chambers at the city hall at 7:30 p.m.

Attorney for Johnstone, John J. Fahey, Jr., called the hearing this week in an answer to charges against Johnstone filed by City Manager Howard I. Stites. In his answer, Fahey denied all charges against Johnsone.

When asked whether he had taken any "affirmative action," as stated last week, Fahey replied that he had not had time to investigate the matter due to a trial he was working on. He added that he would make his decision in a few days.

The former police inspector, whose firing was announced last week at the city council meeting, was primarily accused of "association with known gamblers" and "failure to inform Police Chief Roland Petrocchi of all investigations."

Fahey last week blamed District Attorney Keith Sorenson for instigating Johnstone's removal. He confirmed his opinion this week and stated that witnesses from the District Attorney's office would be called at the hearing.

Sitting on the board of review will be Degliantoni, Clarence Schmidt and Harry Bosbery.

DC Wife Kills Self; Father-In-Law Dies On Same Afternoon

Joint funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Audrey Perada, 29-year-old pregnant housewife who committed suicide in San Francisco Saturday and her father-in-law, John Perada, 71, who died of a heart attack on the same afternoon at his Daly City home.

Mrs. Perada, wife of Richard Perada, 44-year-old Daly City Water department employee, leaped to her death from the sixth floor of a San Francisco Market street hotel. The suicide victim

TEAMSTER UNHURT AS AUTO DROPS OVER BEACH CLIFF

A San Francisco unemployed teamster miraculously escaped with a few bruises early Thursday morning when his car plunged over a cliff at Thornton beach

Walter A. Smith, 33, of 2918 Army street, was unhurt when he stepped from his totally demolished car at the end of the terrifying ride.

Patrolman William J. Hein of the local police force saw the accident while he was patrolling the area. He said that Smith had been driving south on the coast road when he missed a turn near the Alemany intersection and plunged over the cliff.

The automobile overturned at least a dozen times in its wild ride, according to Hein.

Smith was treated for bruises at Junipero Serra hospital.

CAMP MATTRUP Girl Scout camp in Colma, declared off limits in past months because of a potential plague threat, is apparently going to be cleared within the next two weeks, according to Eugene M Howell, San Mateo county public health engineer. Howell said state health department workers are currently making laboratory tests of 11 mice trapped there two weeks ago for evidence of plague-carrying ecto-parasites. Tests to date "look promising" that no plague threat exists, Howell said. The engineer said Girl Scout authorities would be notified as soon as the area was cleared.

COUNCIL INTERESTED IN ANNEXING B'MOOR

Daly City council agreed Tuesday night to forestall a strip annexation in unincorporated Colma that would stymie incorporation plans for the greater Broadmoor area.

The action was taken before an audience of 60 persons representing unincorporated Colma, Broadmoor, Garden Village and Sterling Park.

The council agreed to hold up the annexation, which includes a half-mile strip of property running parallel to Junipero Serra boulevard between Daly City limits and boundaries of the area proposed for incorporation. Annexation of this strip would cut in half the area proposed as a sixth class city. Hearing on the annexation, applied for by Conti Estate and Edward Bocci, is set for June 27. Councilmen said they would close the hearing and delay their decision indefinitely.

EXPRESS APPROVAL

Tuesday's meeting, called by residents of Broadmoor interested in having their area annexed to Daly City, found the council expressing approval of the Broadmoor annexation in an informal vote. It was the first time the council had commented either way about bringing in the some 6000 residents in the Broadmoor area.

However, on plea of Thomas Noonan, Sterling Park Homebwners association president, an advocate of incorporation for the greater Broadmoor area, the council agreed to hold off on the strip annexation that would squelch incorporation.

"HIGHLY UNETHICAL"

"This strip annexation is highly unethical and was done for the specific purpose of ruining our incorporation efforts.

"There's no use holding this discussion if this strip annexation is going to go through. This discussion is like having a knife at our throats—do we want to annex now or later?"

City Attorney Frank Blum said, "It's not fair to say that. These gentlemen have applied to the council for annexation which is within their rights. They may be affected by incorporation and want to avoid it."

Noonan asked the council if they would hold up the Conti-Bocci annexation until an incorporation election would be held.

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi then asked which action would have precedent with the boundary commission, to which Blum replied there might be some difficulty encountered in delaying the Conti-Bocci annexation.

HOLD 2 ELECTIONS

Noonan suggested that incorporation and annexation elections be scheduled within a week of each other. That way, he explained, if incorporation failed the people could vote a week later on annexation.

Blum said the city would have to check on the legality of this.

While all five councilmen expressed a desire to annex the Broadmoor area, the chief problem mentioned was the replacing of California Water Service distribution system, estimated to cost $290,000.

It was suggested by City Man-

BOY SCOUT FUND DRIVE HITS $1500

Daly City's Boy Scout campaign was nearing the $1500 mark this week, as volunteer workers continue to make their reports to chairman Peter J. Markovich. Markovich asked that all those assisting with the business division contacts see their prospects right away and turn their reports in to him, in order that the drive can be brought to a successful conclusion.

Scout parents and committeemen began the second phase of the effort to raise funds for the Boy Scouts of America program in the Daly City area through contact of families of boys in Cubbing and Scouting, and their neighbors.

COUNCILMAN URGES HOSPITAL DISTRICT

Councilman Del Wilson Tuesday urged City Attorney Frank Blum to investigate possibility of forming a hospital district in North San Mateo county to finance hospital facilities here.

Wilson pointed out that eventually the population of Daly City would be 100,000 and the area would require increased hospital services.

The councilman suggested that the special district include Daly City, Colma and Sharp Park area.

City Manager Howard Stites said that the city would relinguish its control by creating a district, since the county board of supervisors would govern the district.

"Maybe a less pretentious plan within the city would be better," the manager offered.

THOUSANDS SEE DALY CITY THROUGH TELEVISION MEDIUM

By MONA BAKER

Three minutes . . . two minutes . . . one minute . . . and the Sandy Spillman show was on the air with his "Salute To Daly City" . . . over KPIX last Friday afternoon before a capacity studio audience of Daly City citizens!

The program was smooth and professional, and Sandy, assisted by his lovely wife, Shirley, was an extremely capable emcee. The audience, made up of prominent city officials, Daly City civic clubs, social groups and enthusiastic citizens, was thoroughly entertained and joined in the spirit of the program.

Please pardon us, but we just have to boast a little. It was really gratifying to find such an enthusiastic response from citizens of our area. Literally we told the world about our community, because through the great medium of television we reached many people that might never have had an opportunity to hear about our fast-growing area.

Perhaps it may be of some interest to our readers to relate just how such a program evolves. A television program does not just happen. Behind the scenes are countless hours of preparation which includes many telephone calls, conferences and research. When Sandy agreed to devote his regular afternoon show to Daly City with all the questions based on this area, we realized that there would be immediate interest from all groups. Under the able leadership of our hard working news editor, Monte Dayton, the Daly City Chamber of Commerce was contacted and they in turn contacted the various organizations. Then followed conferences with Sandy and Shirley and the KPIX publicity department. Background material was submitted to the Spillmans about a week before the telecast and from that material they drew up their very clever questions.

The day of the telecast dawned. The audience was punctual and arrived at the station in plenty of time to complete organization of the program. As we entered the spacious KPIX studio, a bewildering array of cameras, props and scenery met our eyes. There Sandy and Shirley greeted us. With a display of showmanship that is found only in a professional, Sandy held the interest of the audience by tricks of magic as well as explanations of what happens behind the scenes in television.

With true democratic spirit, the audience chose the three contestants who were to appear on the program. They included Fred Martin, president of the Chamber of Commerce," Mrs. Fred Kruse,

Citizens' Committee Maps Jitney Route, Qualifications

Perkins—Jitneys Out In B'moor

Burt Perkins, owner of Westmoor Transit Bus Lines, said today that the jitneys would not receive state public utilities commission approval to operate in Broadmoor if he received permit first.

Perkins proposes a commuter service to be operated mornings and evenings from Broadmoor to West Portal in San Francisco.

His application was presented to the PUC on May 18, and Perkins says he could receive his permit "any day now" if a public hearing isn't forced on the application.

Perkins maintained that the PUC would not authorize two carriers to serve the same area. Thus, if he receives permit to operate, the jitneys proposal to serve the Broadmoor area would probably not gain PUC sanction, according to Perkins.

Perkins claims San Francisco Municipal Railway does not object to his route and will not force a public hearing. Broadmoor has tentatively approved his route, while only Daly City remains to push the issue to a hearing, Perkins revealed.

Perkins indicated that even if he has not secured permit to operate in Broadmoor, he doubted if jitneys would be granted PUC certificate to serve that area, since he could protest on the grounds that his application is still pending.

"Anyway, I doubt if the jitneys would want to run unless they could precede an established bus route and the PUC would never approve that," he concluded.

MAKE NEW TRY FOR POLIO SHOTS ON JUNE 11 HERE

Mass Salk polio vaccination for first and second grade children here will take place June 11 at Woodrow Wilson school, it was announced today by San Mateo County Health Director Dr. Harold D. Chope.

The vaccine administration will be under the sponsorship of the county medical society. Parents have been requested to bring their children to the Woodrow Wilson center between 8a.m. and 12 noon.

Dr. Chope said that the Parke-Davis vaccine will be substituted for the government-impounded Cutter laboratories vaccine.

He said the county now has enough vaccine on hand for the first shots.

Both Dr. Chope and Mrs. Helen Delafield, school district health coordinator, have estimated that the turnout for free vaccinations will fall far below the original signup.

Some 50 physicians, members of the San Mateo county medical society, will act as inoculation teams.

Award Contract For Street Work

O. C. Jones & Sons were awarded contract Tuesday night by the city council for re-surfacing Brunswick and other streets.

Their bid of $21,542 was low of eight proposals submitted.

Contract calls for resurfacing Brunswick, Crocker avenue, San Diego avenue, Hillcrest drive and School street.

Council also awarded bid Tuesday for extension of the central fire alarm system. Gamewell Co.'s proposal of $6539.86 was the only bid submitted.

Jitney Owners To Incorporate Under 'Northgate Transit'

A group of private jitney owners seeking franchise to operate in Daly City, under the name of Northgate Transit Co., sent articles of incorporation for filing in Sacramento Wednesday.

The corporate papers authorize sale of stock up to $25,000. It will be a closed corporation, with only those actively participating in the venture to own shares, according to John Putkey, attorney for the group. Stocks will sell at $50 a share.

The articles of incorporation listed 16 directors, most of whom would also be drivers Among the directors named were J. W. Walsh and Paul J. O'Leary, both of whom have campaigned for the jitney operation here.

Others listed on the board are: Paul Andre, Felix Arbeloa, Felipe Cobo, Pedro Cobo, John Frazier, Frank Jiminez, John Lopes, Arbie Lansbery, Cortland Mitchell, Richard Le Roy Passafiume, Joseph L. Estrada, Charles D. Lucas, Richard Stephen Schneider and Jerry W. Black.

City council has not yet set up the ordinance which will govern operation of the jitneys here. The eight-passenger vehicles were approved as mode of transportation here by the council in a 3-2 vote May 9. At that time a citizens' committee was named to scrutinize the caliber of the jitney operation and its drivers at the time the vehicles start servicing this area.

A 16-man citizens transportation committee held initial meeting Wednesday night to discuss routes for the jitneys and requirements for the drivers.

With City Manager Howard I. Stites acting as chairman, the transit group brought proposals for:

1. A possible lower fare than the 20 cents suggested by the jitney representatives.
2. Liability insurance of $100,000 and $300,000 and property damage protection to $10,000.
3. Mechanical inspection for vehicles and medical examination for all drivers.
4. Possible zone fare to reduce transit costs for persons who must transfer to San Francisco buses after only a short trip on the jitneys.

Feeder Lines

5. Feeder lines to serve midday shoppers if the main route proves profitable.
6. Strict adherence to routes and schedules, controlled by the citizens committee and officials of the jitney company.
7. Service that would include the Westmoor High school now under construction on Skyline boulevard.
8. A route over Alemany boulevard to San Jose avenue in San Francisco, connecting with four Municipal Railway lines.

In opening the meeting, Stites said, "We should do nothing to jeopardize our present form of transportation (Municipal Railway)." He pointed out that jitneys might only be an auxiliary form of transportation.

Jitney Failings

He outlined some of the failings of the jitney group which had caused many citizens to object to their use: Lack of responsibility of the drivers, tendency to disregard regular schedules and routes, lack of central authority.

Stites claimed that screening of the drivers and requiring a license with "mug" shots would insure a higher type of personnel on the jitney lines.

Schedules and routes could be maintained by having the jitney corporation maintain a strict control over its drivers, the manager pointed out.

Stites explained that Daly City can't dictate the route, inasmuch as it includes Broadmoor, an unincorporated area, but said that the state public utilities commission, which will have jurisdiction, would probably be influenced by Daly City's recommendations.

Asked about Henry Doelger's subsidized No. 76 route now in operation, Stites declared he did not think the PUC would allow the jitneys to pick up and dis-

Starway Denied Dance OK

KIRCHHUBEL SAYS "MOSCOW TACTICS"

For the second time in as many weeks, the city council Tuesday denied dance permit to a local tavern, under new ordinance governing dance halls.

Application from Thomas Morgan, owner of the Starway, 5999 Mission street, was turned down on recommendations of Police Chief Roland Petrocchi and City Manager Howard Stites.

The recommendation of denial was based chiefly on an incident April 22 in which San Francisco police arrested a Starway bartender for conspiracy to commit a felony. He was charged with being contact man for an abortion ring.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said the chief's report also showed that the dance hall was a trouble spot for police.

"Didn't Know About"

Morgan pleaded that, "I didn't know the bartender was doing these things. As soon as I found out about him I let him go. I'll try to be more careful about who I hire in the future."

Local tavern owner George Kirchhubel, who last week was refused dance permit for his Hilltop Lodge, interjected, "I agree with this man. The union should be responsible for hiring."

"Since when is a man not responsible for his employees?" retorted Stites. "Anyone operating a public place is responsible for whom he hires."

Councilman Sanford Vickers then moved that application be denied without prejudice, with stipulation that Morgan could seek permit again in 90 days. Motion was passed unanimously.

Kirchhubel Again

Kirchhubel entered the apparently closed debate again, charging that the council didn't act in accordance with the new ordinance and had made no inspections of tavern premises.

"I thought this ordinance was good when it was passed and I conformed with it by submitting a letter to the council.

Next day the chief called me

CALL TO DOCTOR RESULTS IN TV DEBUT FOR WOMAN

Mrs. Frank Silverman, 1859 Sweetwood drive, Broadmoor, made a routine phone call to her doctor Wednesday and wound up on television.

Broadmoor police responded to her home at 10 p.m. after Mrs. Silverman reported that an anonymous man had called from South San Francisco because he had heard her telephone number repeated over Television Channel 12 (of which there is no such animal).

The South San Francisco TV viewer explained to police that he had been watching Channel 7 when mysterious voices interrupted the program, repeating phone numbers.

So he switched channels and accidentally landed on the program-less Channel 12. With the dial turned here, he began to receive the phone numbers loud and clear.

One of the numbers was that of Mrs. Silverman, and he dialed it out of curiosity.

Police later explained that due to some freak atmospheric conditions, the SSF TV set was receiving radio calls from a paging service which had been trying to reach Mrs. Silverman's doctor and have him phone her at her home.

Mrs. Silverman regained her composure after her debut on television was explained.

FRED COLLINS, deputy health inspector for Daly City, was stricken suddenly Tuesday night with an ailment yet unknown and is hospitalized.

Extent of his illness is not known, but the county health department is expected to hire a replacement.

North San Mateo County Sanitation District was all set to hire a chief plant operator for their new sewage plant in Daly City, having given all the necessary examinations last month. There were several qualified candidates for the post.

All the prospective operators were lost, however, as their present employers found out about their possible job change and gave them all raises to stay at their positions.

LEONORE BREWER, fine arts columnist for THE RECORD, appeared as a contestant on the television "Salute to Daly City" Friday.

She answered all her questions correctly and received as a prize one year's subscription to "TV Guide."

The prize will cost her several hundred dollars if she and husband TOM want to make use of it.

They don't own a television set.

San Francisco police said that she checked into the hotel at 5:30 p.m., and shortly thereafter she hurtled to her death.

A suicide note, left in the hotel room, read:

"Rich, this is the only way. I can't take any more. You won't give me my freedom but you want to be with other women.

"I can't bring this baby into the world.

"Tell my children I love them... I failed as a wife and mother...I have always loved you. (signed) Toni."

Children are Audrey and Allen Perada and Joseph Glasgow.

Mrs. Perada's father-in-law never knew of her death as he succumbed to an apparent heart attack at almost the same time she took her life.

Perada, a Daly City resident for 47 years, was a retired mill worker and charter member of the volunteer fire department. He lived at 230 Miriam street.

He was the husband of the late Catherine Perada, and left three sons, Richard, George R. and Albert Perada; a daughter, Mrs. Adeline Guinasso; a sister, Mrs. Lulu Marsch; 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Interment at Greenlawn Memorial Park followed services at W. C. Lasswell & company.

Two Children, 4 and 5, Set Two Fires Here

Two local children, aged four and five were apprehended by local police Wednesday afternoon when it was found they had started two fires on Flournoy street.

The first of the fires was discovered in a vacant lot by a passer-by and extinguished. The second was on the front porch of a home at 125 Flournoy street. The children admitted to setting both fires by igniting rags and paper.

Their names were given to Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, and they were severely reprimanded by Sergeant August Benassini and Officer Charles Munday of the police department.

Boy Scout Fund Drive Hits $1500

This residential phase is under the direction of Robert E. Hunter, Daly City chairman for the Scout organization.

Hunter asked that anyone wishing to contribute, who may not be contacted during this week or next, leave word at his residence and someone will call for the contribution. Official Scout receipts and window stickers are being given to all who participate in the finance campaign.

Goal of the committee is to raise sufficient funds to make possible the organization of a separate Daly City-Colma district of the San Francisco Council, with local officers. At present this area is part of the Lake Merced district, and has grown from a membership of fewer than 200 boys a year ago, to over 450 boys in 14 different packs and troops.

Persons Going Abroad Must Be Immunized

Persons planning a vacation out of the country are asked by the county health department to investigate what immunizations will be needed and have them done early by the family physician.

er's weak areas and to have that teacher concentrate on more education in those fields," Dr. Anderson told the board.

The evaluating committee, proposed by the educator, would consist of the district's administrative staff members. Dr. Anderson suggested that the committee have available a folder on each teacher, which might be referred to when the teacher applied for approval of graduate units.

"The committee and the teacher could then work out together the areas of weakness where the teacher should concentrate," he said.

Dr. Anderson continued to stress the cooperative action needed between the administrative staff and the teachers.

"Lack of Guidance"

"One of our biggest problems today is a lack of proper guidance by the superintendent and the administrative staff," he charged.

When questioned by Trustee Henry Kraus on whether a "poor, little district" could handle the suggested supervisory capacity, Dr. Anderson replied that by taking time for guidance, the district would obtain better teachers.

"Many administrators are overpayed because they don't supply the supervision of teachers which should be required of them," he stated. He added that classroom teachers are in favor of proper supervision when it is not merely criticism.

Dr. Anderson next suggested that the "large turnover of teachers" in the district could be eliminated upon adoption of the teacher's proposals.

At this point, Weibel rose to the defense of his district. He explained that it has been found that teachers had been leaving the district because the young married women were going to have babies or were moving.

"I don't like the oft-quoted statement that we have a disproportionate number of teachers leaving the district," Weibel insisted. "It just isn't true."

The board made no decision on the schedule Wednesday, but will announce their final answer at next Wednesday's meeting, which will be held in the administration building on Santa Barbara avenue.

Following the contestants, Sandy introduced the audience, and as organizations were called, their representatives arose, and their pictures were flashed to the viewers. With such a large audience, it is many times difficult to introduce everyone, but Sandy did a splendid job and nearly every group was recognized.

We are sorry that this was Sandy's last afternoon show, and he will now be starred in "This Morning Show" with Faye Stewart at 8:30 a.m. We feel that there is a definite need for a local afternoon program with audience participation. We would like to suggest that if you feel as we do that you write a letter requesting that the program return to the air. One of the ways that sponsors and stations judge how programs are being received is through their mail.

So with a salute to a thoroughly enjoyable program, we would like to add our "thanks" to Sandy and Shirley and to all the Daly City citizens who joined in the production.

NEW ORDINANCE ADDS MUSCLE TO LAW

Recently adopted Ordinance No. 410 regulating public dances in the city of Daly City has added another muscle to the arm of law enforcement in Daly City.

And the council apparently is not regarding the ordinance as just another means of bringing in a few dollars more a year for permits.

The first two applications for dance permits have been denied.

We admire the unanimity in which the council rejected these dance permit requests.

Councilmen based their decision on recommendations of the police chief and city manager, in that order. Since holding of a dance permit is a privilege, not a right, it is proper that the owners of the establishments bear the burden of proof as to their eligibility for such a public sanction to operate.

If the police chief, whose business it is to know such things, says the establishments constitute a police problem, then permit should be denied until the sources of trouble are eliminated.

In the case of the two applicants who were refused permits, in all probability the trouble listed by the chief would never have developed had the present ordinance been in effect. The law places certain committments on the owners and under the law it is the police department's duty to see that these committments are carried out. The ordinance defines how a dance should be conducted and thereby orders the police to see that the dances are held in accordance with the law.

Denial of permit to an establishment should not, however, be construed as a final statement of that place's reputation.

If the applicant can prove by performance over an extended period of time that he has the ability to operate within the terms of the ordinance, then he is entitled to a permit.

Since all dance permits are subject to revocation, receipt of the permit does not constitute a blanket approval of actions at the establishment.

Instead, a permit is a voucher that the bearer has the privilege to operate as long as he fulfills the letter of the ordinance.

TRUE HUMANITARIANS—Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson work late hours over their basement press, from which all Dawn Society literature is printed. The Society is the eye bank organization through which persons may donate their eyes to be used after death in a cornea transplant operation. It is estimated that 200,000 blind persons could regain sight through a transplant. The Hansons' home at 846 Bellevue avenue is the national headquarters for the Society. At the present time, the Society is searching for a local civic group to take the eye bank for a year's project.

Local Couple Run Nation-Wide Eye Bank In Daly City Home

Scores of blind persons all over the United States and Canada have regained their sight because of a selfless Daly City couple.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson are secretary and assistant secretary of the Dawn Society. Their home at 846 Bellevue avenue is the national headquarters of the organization.

The Dawn Society was organized in 1939 to secure pledges of eyes, the cornea of which, after death, may be transplanted to a blind person.

Although organized by the International Order of Good Templars, pledges may be signed by anyone. As a matter of fact, Hanson reports that he has even been looking for a Daly City civic group to take the Dawn Society for a year's project.

"We've never been so short of pledges before," the secretary exclaimed in an interview at his home.

The Society now has about 4250 pledges. There are an estimated 200,000 blind persons who could regain their sight through a transplant.

He continued that a civic group might obtain pledges for the society and also do some of the detail work required in such an enterprise.

No Compensation

Neither Hanson, who is a carpenter, or his wife are given any compensation for Dawn Society work. Mrs. Hanson spends the majority of each day doing secretarial work, and her husband often works far into the night after earning a living all day.

"It's just something that has to be done," Hanson grinned.

All coordination work of the program is done from the couple's home. Hanson is apt to be called on at any time upon the death of a pledge signer.

Appropriately, as this reporter was interviewing the Hansons Saturday morning, the phone rang. It was a call from a bay area hospital. A pledge signed had just died.

Timing Important

Hanson rushed from the house in order to get the eyes on the plane to Montreal where a blind youth waited. The phone call came at 11:25, the plane left at 2 p.m., and Hanson estimated that the transplant operation would probably take place Monday morning.

The corneas must be removed within six hours after death, and can be kept up to 48 hours.

Hanson has been secretary of the Dawn Society since its beginning years. A native of Sweden, he came to the United States when he was 18 years old in 1911. He travelled about the country doing mining and milling until he settled in California in 1923.

"I heard about the gold country," he explained, when asked why he decided to come to this state.

In 1925 he married his first wife who died in 1940.

"Nice Widower"

"Then three years later my cousin told me she knew a nice widower," Mrs. Hanson interjected, "and that's how I got the job of assistant secretary to the Dawn Society."

Mrs. Hanson is a native of Switzerland and before coming to this country, travelled for many years all over the world as a governess. In 1939 Mrs. Hanson came to the United States, where she again took a job as a governess.

Four years after arriving in this country, she met Hanson, and three weeks after being introduced at a lodge meeting the couple were married.

"The year 1943 was just the right time to marry my husband because that's when all the work began," Mrs. Hanson laughed.

She noted that nation-wide publicity in newspapers and periodicals about the Dawn Society brought a tremendous public response.

Hard Work Begins

The hard work for the Hanson began.

In lieu of the gigantic public relations and advertising department found in most philanthropic organizations, Hanson has a printing press in the basement of his home.

"We had $50 to pay our year's expenses, and that couldn't very well include professional printing," Hanson recalled.

Although never having done any printing before, he bought a discarded press, and with the help of a friend, learned how to operate it. For more than seven years, Hanson printed all literature, including the pledge forms, from his old press.

Finally, in 1948 the Society voted to buy a new press, which was moved into Hanson's basement.

At present the Society is conducting a drive to raise money for a Dawn Society eye hospital in this area. Funds are received by voluntary givers and through a Christmas seal promotion.

Hanson pointed out that only in a case of extreme corneal astigmatism, diabetes and syphilis is it impossible to use the corneas for a transplant operation. There is no ag elimit beyond which corneas are acceptible.

Upon receipt of a request for information the Dawn Society mails pledge blanks and explanatory literature. The blank need only be filled out, witnessed and returned. The society, in turn, sends an identification card which shows that the pledger is duly registered.

For information, readers may call Mr. and Mrs. Hanson at JU. 5-8527.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

No matter what your age bracket, someone in the film industry is worrying about how to please you.

We read in one of the industry's trade magazines the other week that the general manager of a group of theaters (not in the Bay Area) was quoted as complaining that " . . . producers are making pictures aimed almost entirely at the adult trade . . ," resulting in an alarming drop in children's admissions in the early weeks of this year. He was full of ideas of how to draw the moppets away from their television screens and back into the theaters. This writer is inclined to disagree with the statement that "pictures are aimed almost entirely at the adult trade," but this gentleman had statistics to prove that the kiddie trade was dropping, and who are we to argue with his figures?

Then there was another manager in a similar situation (likewise outside the Bay Area) who is plugging a plan to lure the 12-17 age group into the movie houses. He claims that the regularity of attendance tends to lessen when the age of 12 is reached, and believes this particular group could be lured back into the popcorn palaces by means of a decreased admission.

Letter To Editor

This suggestion brought forth in a subsequent issue a letter to the editor from a theater manager back in the midwest, and our only regret is that space forbids us to quote it in full, as it was well worth reading. (The fact that his opinions coincide with ours of course has nothing to do with our approval of his viewpoint!) Anyway, what about twenty column inches of an extremely well written letter boiled down to was: Teenagers don't lack money, but some lack manners; and if theater managers are interested in increasing business they must not cheapen their films by permitting their theaters to become "rowdy, raucous" places and should also watch how their pictures are advertised, as misrepresentation of a film by lurid advertising merely drives the prospective patron away.

So there you have it—no matter what your age bracket, someone is considering you part of the "lost audience" and is doing his best to bring you back into the fold.

Mature Themes

Apropos of films for those interested in mature, even controversial themes, some recent releases indicate that this cause is not without hope; for example, "Blackboard Jungle," "East of Eden," "Marty" and the soon to be released "Rose Tattoo."

At this point we had intended to quote Dore Schary, vice president in charge of production at MGM, who recently warned the film industry against avoiding subjects which are "challenging" merely because some of the audience will disagree with such film matter. However, quoting further from his speech would merely lead up into the subject of censorship, so this will have to wait for a later column.

SPEED TOO FAST FOR CONDITIONS

We Americans pride ourselves on our common sense. We like to think that we take a realistic view of things. But nothing could be less realistic than our attitude toward speed.

Too many of us are prone to think of speed in an isolated sense. We do not consider it in its relationship to other factors. But, since we do not operate our cars in a vacuum, there are always other factors present. And speed combined with other factors can add up to very real danger. It is in our unwillingness—or inability—to see this fact that we are unrealistic.

It should be obvious to any driver with normal intelligence that conditions of weather, road, his vehicle and his own physical and mental state should determine the speed at which he drives.

What may be a safe speed on a straight, well-paved uncrowded highway may become a dangerous speed on a heavily traveled street or on an unpaved, narrow or winding road. Similarly, rain, fog, or other inclement weather conditions call for a slow-down.

It is also reasonable to suppose that if a driver is in a pleasant relaxed mood and in good health, he'll be able to drive safely at a higher speed than he would if he were nervous, worried, fatigued, or otherwise under par. If his car is in good mechanical condition it, too, is in better shape to withstand the rigors of faster speed. Worn brakes or any other mechanical fault must be compensated for by a lowered rate of speed.

Legally, the connection between speed and condition is well established. In every state a driver is liable to arrest if he is driving at a speed that is not safe under prevailing conditions, even though he may be traveling at a speed well under the posted speed. Since the law takes this view, it is extremely foolhardy for the driver to take any other.

It's good to see LEONA LOMBARDI back after her ten-day vacation in Las Vegas. This was Leona's first vacation since she opened the Mode-O-Day Shop here five years ago.

Another one of our youngsters who celebrated his birthday May 21 was BRADFORD FOSS of 6995 Mission. His guests were Kitty Kavanaugh, Micheal and Thomas Lation, Dorothy, Shirley, Johnny and Herbie Standridge, Brad's sister, Marilyn, was also present. Cake and ice cream was enjoyed by all after which the guests went off to the movies.

Little CINDY ORBANOS of Abbott has recently been wearing a cute patch on the side of her eye. She met with an accident which required stitches on her eye lid and how it happened is still a mystery.

Another belated birthday wish goes to PAM SERENI of Miriam who recently celebrated her birthday.

The BILL JACOBSONS of Abbott headed for Cupertino to spend their long weekend.

Another surprise baby shower was given for MRS. FRANCES WATTS. This time the ladies really surprised her by going to her home. Co-hostesses were Connie La Bruzzo and Bernice Cunningham. Guests were Lillian Klassen, Loren Fillbach, Audrey Joyce, Frances Caruso, Theresa Vasnaugh, Alice Kerekes, Betty Simonson, Enid Williams, Marian Plansky and Edith Hathaway.

Two more of our local boys who have been quite busy playing are RONALD SAMPINO on drums, and DONALD AIELLO on the accordian. They were asked to play for the Italian American Social Club Banquet May 21.

The CHARLES CREASYS of Abbott entertained relatives at their new home.

Thank you for the phone calls. Remember the Number — PL. 5-5419.

Miss Dolores (Lorie) Johnson spent the weekend in Linda Mar at the home of the Windel Sawyers. Mrs. Sawyer (Carol) is Lorie's sister.

THE RECORD Errs On Accident Citation Here

Albion J. Bradbury, 22, of Hamilton Air Force base was cited in a recent accident at Junipero Serra and Alemany. It was incorrectly stated in this paper last week that the other driver involved in the collision, Luigi Bacigalupi, 64, of 722 Niantic street, had been cited.

Robert Thomas Reports For Navy Duty In Texas

KINGSVILLE, Tex. — Among those who reported in May for duty at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station here was Robert E. Thomas, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyde K. Thomas of 177 Bepler street, Daly City.

Before entering the Navy, he attended Jefferson Union High School.

Kingsville, the home of Naval air jet training, is situated a few miles from the Gulf of Mexico on the south-eastern coast of the state. Beside training pilots in jet aircraft, many of the Navy's pilots here receive fighter pilot training in the F6F Hellcat, anti-submarine warfare training in the TEM Avenger, and all-weather flight training in the T28-B, a U. S. Navy instrument plane.

BOYS' STATE representatives from Daly City's Jefferson High school are Jim Honeywell (left) and Lowell Klaisner. The youths, both juniors, will take part in the annual Boys State program at Sacramento this month, in which the youngsters set up their own laws and govern their community. Honeywell is being sponsored by Daly City chapter of the American Legion, while Klaisner is being sent by Westlake chapter of the Legion. Both Boys are active in sports, Honeywell participating in frosh-soph and varsity football and baseball and varsity basketball. Klaisner just concluded a highly successful track season during which he broke two PAL sprint records and ran Jeff's B 440 relay team which won top league honors. Klaisner finished third in the North Coast Section 150-yard dash May 21, competing against athletes from more than 100 schools.

Argus Of Colma School

FUN AT SCHQOL — Yes, this reporter can state that this is true—or so was the case on Friday, May 27—FUN DAY. Such originality that was displayed by the students of the seventh and eighth grades at Colma. One definitely could not tell who was who and the surprises were endless. Among the numerous costumes were a pair of dice, an engineer, fellas dressed as gals, little girls assiduously licking their lolly pops as they tripped over their feet in a pigeon-toed gait, hunch-backs lurking through the halls with the Vampires sleeking along their rooms, the now popular Davy Crockett get-up, and the Armed Forces were in mass—the Navy, Army and mixtures of all. Well, you name it and IT was at Colma—such originality—the events during the day consisted of pie-eating contests (which incidentally was one all volunteered to participate in, in order to fill the continually empty stomachs)—the three legged race, relays, a movie, dance contests, and the large dance on the playground. Did we have fun? Indeed we did and we want to thank all the committees, teachers and administration for making such an event possible. It is one that will long remain in our minds.

AND SO TO HIGH SCHOOL—Yes, it won't be long until we eighth graders will haunt the halls of high school and we had a sneak preview on Monday and Tuesday, May 23 and 24. The students of Jeff acted as guides and did a marvelous job of orienting us to the set-up of the school and answered all questions. We do appreciate such an opportunity and want to thank all those repsonsible at Jeff for the two days they set aside for us in their busy schedule.

TURN ABOUT IS FAIR PLAY — And so we had an Articulation Day, May 25, for the sixth graders in the district. They, too, were given a tour of the Colma grounds and attended an assembly to better inform them of what to anticipate in the seventh and eighth grades at Colma. As we looked at these groups we realized how they must feel, having had the same experience a few days prior.

SPEAKING OF — Speaking of the sixth graders, Miss Doris Dieterle's Room 62 were hosts to the other sixth grade at Colma. They gave a dance in the multi-purpose room with refreshments and lots of fun. The outstanding fact was that this group used the money they had won in the annual rag drive and with the remaining funds they purchased a radio for the school. Now if that isn't hospitality we just don't know what is.

FIRE! FIRE! — Now we don't mean to infer there was a fire at Colma but the sixth graders certainly were given a lesson in how to report a fire. Mr. J. Weisner, Superintendent of Fire Boxes in No. 5 Firehouse at Westlake, showed the students how to use the fire-box and explained that this method is far more efficient than the telephone. The sixth graders certainly enjoyed the lesson and appreciated the fact that Mr. Weisner had taken the time to show them how they can help to save lives.

AL AND MZ LEAGUE — These are the volleyball leagues that are active at Colma during the noon hours under the direction of Coach Bill Mendosa. The leagues were selected according to the letter in the last name of the student and the members are male and female. Such competition has certainly stirred an active participation.

THE THREE TOP — Three of the busiest eighth graders at Colma are Patricia Palmer, valedictorian, Sharon Anderson, salutatorian, and Sandra Smith, class historian. They are in the throes of preparing their speeches for the 1955 graduation ceremonies. The Argus would like to congratulate them on their outstanding achievements this year.

CHOP! CHOP! CHOP! CHOP! — And such is the sound in the girls shop period during activity. The roving reporters on their round of the activities were given a "Cook's tour" in Mr. Kerman Sanden's shop by April Moseley who was busy at the sanding machine when we entered. We observed their knowledge of all the machines that were in use and were shown the articles that had been completed—tables, napkin holders, shelves, etc. Our comment was that these girls certainly were agile in a subject not often attempted by the females of Colma.

AND THEN THERE WERE NONE — We just must announce that there are but eleven days until the portals of Colma swing shut. The students certainly are charmed by this thought and when questioning the teachers we found that they, too, showed a spark of awareness of this fact. It seems many of the teachers will be attending summer school—and so we students say, "Happy School Days, Teachers, we'll be thinking of you."

PUBLIC REACTION SPURS GMC TRUCK SALES AT DC AGENCY

Unusually good public reaction to the newly-styled, newly-engineered 1955 line of GMC trucks has sent May sales at Peter Venturino's higher than they were in the corresponding month a year ago, it was announced today by Venturino, president of the agency.

The increased sales reflect widespread acceptance of the new GMC styling, which with panoramic windshield, two-tone interiors and many other passenger-car style features, is rapidly making truck owners forget the old saying, "it looks like a truck," Venturino said.

"In addition to a glamorous exterior," Venturino said, "the new GMC trucks have more than 500 major engineering improvements including two new V-8 engines and increased horsepower in all of the others."

This month the 6th Grades went on a picnic, on June 2. It was a going away present from Crocker school.

Wednesday, May 25, we went to Colma school. We were shown around the school and they had an activity program to show us just what they do. We had a nice guide.

6th Grade - Miss J. Laury
Written by Sharon Greenlin, Reporter

Our class has been making ceramic ash trays of various shapes and sizes.

In April our class and Mrs. Hawkin's class went to Fisherman's Wharf, Maritime Museum and Coit Tower.

On the 25th of May, the 6th Graders of Crocker school and other schols went on a tour of Colma school, which most of us will attend next fall.

We are unfortunate to have a boy in our class, Louis Guillary, who has been very sick in the hospital. We have been writing letters to cheer him up and we hope he will be soon back at school.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

If anyone new to Village Lane had been driving by last week, he would have seen a tribe of school children all running after a small truck and shouting madly! No small matter, either—Barry was being carted off by the dog catcher and all his young friends were out in the interests of justice. Barry is the very large, happy and lovable dog belonging to the Golobics. He is now safely back at home—the dog catcher gave up under the onslaught!

And while we're on the subject of dogs, Gorgeous George is now a member of the Murphy homestead on Midway. GG is a droopy-eared beagle puppy, given to them by George Carleton, one of BPD's finest.

There are two forbidden words on the memo lists of two Village ladies at the moment—Dot Hazen shudders at the word "hike," and Frances Brown turns pale when she hears "surprise!" Dot left the warmth and comfort of her Village Lane home and, with Margaret Damon as an ally, took Girl Scout Troop 13 on a two-night camping trip in Marin county. The hike came in when the troop left the first night's camp site in Muir Woods and hiked to Bootjack Camp—where they fell exhausted for the second night's rest!

Frances Brown's trouble with "surprise" is only until she recuperates from a very successful surprise birthday luncheon she gave her mother-in-law, Mrs. Meta Brown of San Francisco. There were 18 guests, including Claire Alvis of Midway, and Frances' mother, Mrs. M. Burke. Frances' sisters came also—Mrs. George Kavaney and Miss Ann Burke.

There were some more proud and happy children who received First Communion recently from Our Lady of Mercy church. Bryce Stockslager and Michael Kolb were two of these, and Pat and Bill Stockslager had a Sunday afternoon buffet at their home on Ellis street in honor of their son's special day.

Families on Foothill took off both north and south recently. Bob and Vivian Leech and family visited Vivian's brother-in-law, Leo Roselyn, in Atherton. He and his daughter Nancy, who is a Stanford student, are keeping house while Vivian's sister Myrna is back in Philadelphia being a helpful grandma-to-be. Maurine Guymon gathered up her children and accompanied husband Del on a business trip to Ukiah and Redding, a sort of extra vacation dividend.

Something else happened on Foothill which could have been far worse than it was. Patricia Fitzpatrick was riding her smaller brother on the handlebars of her bicycle when his foot caught in the spokes, stopping the bike short. Patricia didn't stop. Fortunately her cut head and concussion are on the mend, for which everyone is grateful. This is one example of what can happen when children ride double on a bicycle, and this is why the Broadmoor Police Department stared the bicycle school and court. The first teaches the correct way to ride a bicycle—the second is to help keep it in mind. Citations are being issued for incorrect riding procedures and for traffic violations, and also for not having a bicycle license.

Children who have been to bicycle school and qualified for licenses and who have not picked them up should do so right away. Those who have not yet been to bicycle school may attend on first and third Saturdays at 10 a.m. at Garden Village School grounds. And if your child should receive a bicycle court citation, consider it a protection, not a nuisance, and help our police department keep all of our children safe.

There are some proud fathers around town, which means That Bird has been here again! Collins Orton has a new son, Raymond Burley, and young Collie and Tim are showing junior edition of proud looks. Mother Dorothy finds the new one a nice armful to hold.

Bob Hulbert on 87th street has welcomed son No. 3, with big brothers Alan and Gary and sister Ann helping Mark Elden feel at home. And of course, everyone was glad to welcome mother, Mary Helen, back again!

Speaking of new members of the family, the Dudley Smiths on Nimitz have one too—a nice bright, shiny-red Plymouth station wagon!

The servicemei at the Embarcadero Y had a treat when some of the Broadmoor pupils of Louise Andre's dancing school were featured on a variety entertainment program. Joyce and Lynn Navarro, Bill and Pamela Eagleton, Kenny Hahn, Dawn and Nomie Klevesahl, Peggy Murphy, Melody Gaines, Vincente Yates and Marilyn Riggs were the dancers.

Sonja Hrushka has been hobbling around Thornhill lately with a nice fat bandage on a sprained ankle. She played dodge ball a little too hard.

Richard Sirianni had 10 days leave to spend with his family on 87th street, having finished his Army training in Colorado. His next post is Ft. Bliss, Texas.

Bea Zook over on Manila had her first airplane flight when she traveled to Santa Marino to see her new nephew, six-week-old Dee Christopher. She came back entranced with both the baby—and flying!

Bobbie Bechtold out our way on Maddux gave a dinner party to celebrate his 9th birthday. Friends Billy Hamilton, Bruce Spry, Richard Corso, Ronald Stern and John Spediacci were there for the fun, as were Sherry, Christine and Barry Bechtold.

Cub Pack 84 has a softball team, and the members of the team have parents hho are good friends. So it follows that the everybody-bring-something buffet supper held at the Community Center by said parents was quite a happy event. With tamale pies, salads, cream puffs and apple pies on the menu, Nellie and Otto Krawetz, Jean and George Landess, Marion and Roz Hilton, Mary and John Hess, Jean and Ed Wiitala, Betty and Randy Hix, Billie and Art Townsend, Pearl and Glenn South, Mel and Jane Hahn and Bobbie Faust all had a very pleasant evening indeed.

Too bad to have to report a Sick List still, but that particularly nasty virus, which seems to delight in finding new ways to make people uncomfortable, is still hanging around. Lynn and Virginia Jones have finally gone back to school after three weeks at home, and Pat Meade, Susan Swanson, Jimmy Esposto, Jimmy Swoverland, Kenny and Heidi Stettler, the whole Stan Wilson family, Helen Baumgartner and Dolores Helmer haven't felt their best at times during the past week.

Latest Village visitor was Mrs. Fowlie, mother of Eleanor Bloom. She stayed with David and Eleanor on 87th street for a week while her husband, a doctor himself, underwent an operation at UC Hospital. One of the topics of conversation was Eleanor's sister Phyllis, who recently became a stewardess for American Airlines. She is based at Dallas, Texas, at present, with a flight route which takes in Tulsa, Chicago and New York. Of course, her family is hoping she will get a San Francisco run before too long! Dr. and Mrs. Fowlie are now back at their home in Santa Rosa.

We had a very nice chat the other day with Mrs. Santos, who lives on Willits, and whose daughter, Georgeanna, recently celebrated her 7th birthday with a party for 12 girls and two boys, classmates from her first grade at Woodrow Wilson school. The party was completely arranged by King Norman of the Kingdom of Toys shop on Clement street, with comedy movies, games, cake and ice cream and moving pictures taken of the party, and all the fun. Seems that Georgegenna and her younger sister, Marcella, were both born at 1:30 p.m. on a Sunday in a Leap Year, and both were born on holidays. Marcella chose Mothers' Day (May 12 that year) and Georgegenna decided on Memorial Day.

HOMEOWNERS SET CIVIC LEADERS NIGHT TUESDAY

"Civic Leaders Night," sponsored by Hillside Homeowners Improvement association, will be held Tuesday night in the multi-purpose room of the Colma school.

The gathering will give members of the association an opportunity to meet with civic officials. Among officials to be on hand include Mayor Joseph Verducci, Councilmen Micheal De Bernardi, Del Wilson, Edward Dennis and Sanford Vickers, and City Manager Howard Stites.

President Don Lesher will welcome the city leaders. He predicts a large turnout and invites all persons living east of Mission street in vicinity of Hillside boulevard to attend.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Chairman for the night will be Mrs. Helen Le Compte, vice president of the association.

Citizens' Commit'ee Maps Jitney Route

charge passengers within Daly City on the No. 76 route, except at the Westlake shopping center.

Doelger's Route Loses

Stites revealed that Doelger's new route, launched May 23, has been taking in from $40 to $60 a day, as compared with $60 to $70 a day under the previous route.

Doelger's subsidy agreement, insuring San Francisco up to $600 a month on losses, ends July 1.

Stites also expressed opinion that the No. 56 (Cemeteries) line now under six-months trial operation, would be suspended.

He based his opinion on a survey made by San Francisco muni officials which showed that only a small percentage of the No. 56 riders are from San Francisco.

Earl Taylor, representative of the Cemeteries association, argued that inasmuch as Colma is San Francisco's burial grounds, the muni wouldn't discontinue the No. 56.

Stites said if the No. 56 were discontinued, the jitneys might provide an alternate route which would serve Mission street residents en route to the Colma area.

Broadmoor Service

Jack Baker, president of the Broadmoor Property Owners association, pointed out that the proposed jitney route serves very little of the Broadmoor area. He mentioned the proposed commuter bus route offered by Westmoor Transit Co., which is now seeking certificate of necessity to operate from state PUC. Baker said his association had hesitated to endorse Westmoor, waiting for Daly City's plan.

Stites, pointing out that Burt Perkins of Westmoor line was attempting to get a certificate without a public hearing, explained that all parties involved must join the action in order to avoid a hearing.

"Obviously San Francisco won't back Perkins' line because part of his route is in San Francisco," Stites said.

Back on the jitney subject again, Mel Battye, Daly City-Colma Lions president, asked "Who are these men who'll be operating here?"

John Drye, who said he represented the city council, interrupted. "Let me answer. The true facts are not brought out. These are above average men who are well off financially."

Not Committed

"We're not committed to any specific group," Stites added. "The council has merely decided that jitneys should be the city's form of transportation."

"Our job is to write up specifications to submit to the PUC," the manager continued.

Baker brought out the possible danger of having too many bus routes, if Perkins starts his Westmoor line, Doelger continues subsidizing the No. 76 and the jitneys start operating.

Stites explained, however, that Perkins has already announced he will not operate in the face of jitney competition.

"Won't Solve Problem"

H. S. Garrison, Chamber of Commerce representative, declared, "Jitneys won't solve the problem but will worsen the situation. There'll be 200 people waiting for service in the morning. The jitneys had better keep off a regular route so the people won't throw rocks at them after waiting for hours.

Bud Lycett, OLPH Men's club representative, asked Stites why Colma and Broadmoor had been called in on the transportation issue. "We're concerned with Daly City, aren't we?" he queried.

"We can't consider one without considering all the area," answered Stites. "Their welfare is wrapped up in Daly City's. Of course," he added, "The problem would be much simpler if the Broadmoor area were annexed to Daly City."

The transportation group set next meeting for June 15 at the city hall, at which time Stites will have proposed routes outlined in ribbons on the city hall map.

Those present at Wednesday's meeting included: Stites, Taylor, Drye, Battye, Baker, Lycett, Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Bender, representing Westlake Business and Professional association; The Rev. Roy Milam, Westlake Baptist church; Lyal Ingersoll, high school board of trustees; Thomas Jenkins, BPOA, The Rev. Thomas Whelpley, Grace Presbyterian church; Charles Santuccio, Westlake Improvement association; Roland Petrocchi, police chief; Paul M. Hupf, Our Lady of Mercy church; Richard R. "AN EXAMPLE of the successful use of art in advertising" was the tribute paid to this photo of a Berger crane taken by Ken Reichard of Westlake Studio. The picture was on display at the Seventh Exhibition of Advertising Art in San Francisco, conducted by Society of Artists and Art Directors. Reichard, who lives at 1025 Gilman drive, Broadmoor, snapped the picture in Camas, Wash., where he was doing commercial photography work for Crown-Zellerbach Co. Crane shown is used to lift logs from the river to the wood deck. Massive effect was achieved with back-lighting, using Rolleiflex camera open to F 16 at 1/100 of a second on high speed panchromatic film.

Read Romans 10: 6-15

With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made until salvation. (Romans 10:10.)

At a national professional convention, an enthusiastic young salesman came to me. He sought me out to tell me his story. He said that he and his young wife were both brought up in Christian homes, reared in the church and active in it.

He had been taught, by public opinion, that to be successful one had to be able to take a social drink. He said he had been having a difficult time at the convention, for he had been drinking with the fellows, even though he knew it was wrong.

Having heard that I was a total abstainer, he came to talk with me. After a very heartwarming experience together, he confided it was good to have come to the meeting if for no other reason than to meet one person who could take a definite stand in the business world against all drinking. He was sure he was better prepared to return to his home and resume business and take a positive stand against all drinking.

"Let's Have a Safe Summer" is the subject to be discussed by Dave Jeffords, of the Red Cross speakers bureau, at the meeting of the Westlake PTA tomorrow (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the multi-use room of the school.

The 17th district school of information held on May 19 in Burlingame was attended by nine chairmen from the Westlake unit.

Council Interested In Annexing B'moor

ager Howard Stites that the city of Daly City and the area to be annexed share cost of replacement, with the Broadmoor area allowed to pay off their cost over a 10-year period.

MAIN ISSUE

Mayor Joseph Verducci said the main issue at hand was "Do we want to be a large, efficient well-planned city or maintain the status quo? We are stymied in our 'run to the south.' It has been found that cities of from 50,000 to 100,000 are the most efficiently run and we would like to reach that size but we can't do it at the expense of the present taxpayers.

The mayor said this was the first occasion the council had to meet on the annexation question and would have to hold further sessions with Stites to make a decisive policy.

Noonan said after the meeting that his group would proceed with setting of boundaries for the area proposed for incorporation and would probably file their map within a week. The next step would be securing petition of incorporation from the county board of supervisors, at which time they could seek necessary signatures to call the election.

Blum was advised to check on the legality of simultaneous elections and the delaying of the Conti-Bocci annexation application.

County Boy Scouts Expect Big Turnout At Summer Camp

County Boy Scouts anticipate a record attendance at Camp Pomponio and Camp Kit Carson this summer according to John Linden, Chairman of the camping and activities committee of the Council. Plans are being made final for nine full weeks of camp with an anticipated enrollment of 1,200 to 1,600 Boy Scouts.

Scoutmasters now have full information on the various plans of camping offered for Boy Scout troops and Explorer units of this Council. There are three plans which Scouts may attend camp. The most highly recommended is troop camping with a fee of $20.50 per Scout and Scouter; and under this plan the Council camp provides all meals, living quarters and transportation, and the central camp staff will assist troop-supplied leaders on the program.

Plan B is for experienced troops with a fee of $4 per week for Scout and Scouter; under this plan troops arrange to supply and prepare their own food, adult leadership and transportation, as well as camping and cooking gear. Plan C is set up for patrols or individual Scouts who must come to camp without their own troop or troop leadership. In this case, the fee is $23.50 and includes transportation, food, living quarters and leaders hired by the Council.

Personnel for the camp staff will be headed by Sam Marks, Camp director and program director for the Council. Assisting him as commissary director will be Fred Gardner, field executive for the Central district. Uncle Bill Platt, perennial favorite of the boys of this Council, will again be director of nature lore. Chief Venne, popular feature of the 1954 season, will again be in charge of Indian lore and handicraft. Other staff assignment will be made within the next ten days.

Scouts attending Camp Pomponio will find a wealth of program material for outdoor adventure and advancement opportunities. Included in this are every kind of craft, aquatics, nature study, hiking, overnight camping and such special sports as ropeyard, skish, archery, target practice and others.

Camp Kit Carson, mountain camp of the Council, will operate on a unit basis, open from July 7 through the summer for individual units wishing to avail themselves of the opportunities provided by camping at a 9,000 foot elevation on beautiful Twin Lakes.

Registration for either of these camps should be effected through the Scoutmaster or Explorer Advisor of the Scout's home Troop.

Summer activities in addition to those described above, Linden reports, will also include special trips for a limited number of Scouts. Three specially selected Explorers, George Saywell, Robert Rief and Gary Kalbach, will attend the International Jamboree at Niagara on the Lake in August.

About 20 Explorers will have the opporunity of a tour to Alaska under the guidance of Father Bernard R. Hubbard, the Glacier Priest; this is a six weeks' trip to include many well planned events and adventures en route, plus a four weeks stay in Alaska, where the time will be devoted to fishing, exploration, conservation and companionship and exchange of ideas with the scouts of that area.

A trip to the 150,000 acre Philmont Scout Ranch at Cimarron, New Mexico can accommodate about 20 Explorers and will be under the guidance of Leroy Helsel Jr. This group will leave on July 18 by bus and will include in their itinerary stops at Grand Canyon, Painted Desert and Petrified Forest, followed by a week at the ranch spent in hiking, study of wild life and conservation and fishing.

WESTLAKE SCOUTS HOLD OVERNIGHT CAMPING TRIP

On a recent Saturday morning, 29 boy scouts and 10 leaders from Boy Scout troop 248 met at the Westlake clubhouse to start on their first overnight hike to Portola State park. All the equipment and boys were placed in three trucks and four cars for the trip.

The group arrived in camp about 10 a.m. and the scouts were assigned to campsites. At 1:30 p.m. second class test passing period activity was under way. Patrol Leader Frank DeMartini had charge of the compass test, Assistant Patrol Leader Mike Silberstein handled measuring, training was in charge of Assistant Patrol Leader Bruce Wilson and Wild Life test was in the hands of Patrol Leader Paul Hanley. Assistant Scoutmaster Mel Wilner supervised the entire activity. Scoutmaster Al Belotz gave instruction on the use of the knife and axe and held a small class in tenderfoot knot tying requirements Scout John Farber and Mike Silverstein passed some First Class scout requirements to Wilner.

Dinner was bein prepared under the supervision of Chief Harry T.E.M. Bosbery and Cook George Vlahovich. After dinner the entire troop took a hike around the area with Moore, Wilson and Belotz. When the boys arrived back in camp Scout Dick Ellis and his fellow workers organized a "snipe" hunt.

By 10 p.m., following campfire, all the scouts were in their sleeping bags and tents listening while Scout Dave Dunbar played Taps on his bugle.

The following morning reville was at 6:30 a.m. but all the troop, with the exception of the fathers, were up and around about 5 a.m. Scoutmaster Belotz conducted church services. Before lunch all campsites were cleaned up; tents were down, sleeping bags rolled up and all the scouts' equipment was assembled ready to load on the trucks and cars.

After lunch the scouts challenged the fathers to a game of softball, 29 boys against 10 men. With the aid of "light-fingered" Harry Bosbery the fathers cinched the victory after many exciting innings.

All campers were back in Westlake by 5 p.m.

Navy Asks Nurses To Volunteer

More than 14,000 patients are treated daily in Naval Hospitals at Naval Stations around the world; at sea aboard hospital ships and transports; and during flight aboard military hospital planes. Navy nursing today is as varied as the field of medicine itself, giving Navy Nurses the opportunity to practice every kind of nursing with the latest in equipment and facilities.

Not only does the Navy Nurse gain experience in all phases of nursing but she may further her education in a specialized field. For example, anesthesia, administration, teaching, or supervision in one of the clinical specialties. Every year the Navy sends some of its nurses to civilian colleges and universities for advanced study.

To qualify for a commission in the Navy Nurse Corps the applicant must be between the ages of 21 and 39½; a graduated, registered, professional nurse; single or married, but with no dependents under the age of 18 years; a citizen of the United States; and able to meet physical and professional qualifications. Volunteers for active duty are accepted for a minimum period of two years. All nurse appointees who request active duty are ordered to the U. S. Naval Hospital, St. Albans, New York, for a course of indoctrination in Navy nursing before reporting to their first duty station.

That's My Point

By Monte Dayton

Kids never had it so good.

The typical spring slick magazine cover shows a freckle-faced, cheeks of tan, barefoot boy with battered straw hat walking alongside a babbling brook with a couple of trout tied to his belt and a safety pin-willow stick-cotton string arrangement over his shoulder as his implements of angling.

Today a youngster is more apt to be seen trolling from an outboard, garbed in latest fishing finery and casting with a split bamboo rod, double-tapered line and the most elegant in artificial lures.

Take the new program at nearby Lake Merced, for instance.

ONE DAY A WEEK FREE FROM BOATS

Starting June 27 the one-day-a-week free fishing from boats for children will be inaugurated (there must be a shorter title for the program).

According to the system put into effect by San Francisco Mayor Elmer E. Robinson, recreation and park department, the Associated Sportsmen and Aurie Kuntz, operator of the Lake Merced boating concession, all cooperate to give the children a free fishing day on Mondays, starting June 27, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Here's how it works:

A minimum of 10 boats are provided free by Kuntz. The Associated Sportsmen District Council No. 7 provides a generous supply of fishing equipment.

Children interested in a day of fishing must sign up at San Francisco playgrounds and each playground will be assigned a day at the lake. On that particular day a playground director accompanies each group of boys and girls from the playground to the lake.

No more than three children are permitted in a boat and each boat is operated by an adult.

It doesn't specifically say that Daly City kids are eligible, but nobody's going to know the difference if they sign up at one of the playgrounds.

It's not really like poaching.

BOXING IS A FINANCIAL FAILURE

Apparently the OLPH monthly amateur boxing program has gone kerplunk.

Increased costs of promoting the events and an imminent raise in community center rental fee have made the program "financially unsound," according to Dick Liberty, OLPH Men's club president.

Echoing the words of Benny Ford after the Marciano-Cockell bout, Liberty says, "Everybody makes money but us."

On an average night, the gross receipts were $1000.

Of this the following agencies and groups dipped in and came out with these amounts: Fighter expenses, $250; federal amusement and state taxes, $150; hall rental, $75; merchandise (beer, hot dogs, etc.), $40; ticket printing, $15; programs, quarter cards, $60; license, $50; posting bonds with athletic commission, $30; boxing equipment, $50; referee, $25; doctor, $25; miscellaneous, $150.

That means that on an average night, the OLPH Men's club had $80 left for their youth welfare fund. Figuring it takes 20 Men's club members working five hours apiece gratis to put the thing over, the return on their labors is less than minimum wage scale.

It doesn't take an accountant to tell the Men's club that there must be an easier way to make a buck.

Liberty says the program will definitely be abandoned for the summer, but may be resumed next fall if community center rental charge remains the same.

If the program is renewed, there'll be a lot more advance promotion to draw those extra two or three hundred fans that are the margin of profit and loss.

BAILEY LANDS NPAL FIRST TEAM SPOT; GUISTI, FIGONE, CREIGHTON ON SECOND CLUB

Jefferson High school landed one first and three second team positions on the 1955 All Northern Peninsula Athletic League baseball team announced today by Peninsula Sportswriters association.

Bob Bailey, a 16-year-old junior, was selected as outstanding first baseman in the league on the strength of his excellent fielding. Although only a .269 hitter, Bailey was a clutch performer at the plate and drove in the winning runs on many occasions with extra base-hits. The 6' 1" left-hander was a returning veteran from last year's varsity.

Bolstering a strong NPAL second team were Jefferson's Lowell Creighton, pitcher, Rich Guisti, fielder, and Al Figone, third baseman.

Creighton, also a returnee from last year, was the PAL's hard-luck pitcher, dropping three games out of seven. Named to the 1954 NPAL first team, Creighton was the victim of his own team's errors in two of his losses and had an unusual wild spell in his third loss.

A senior, Creighton was considered by many coaches to be one of the top prep pitchers in northern California.

Guisti, an outfielder, was one of the Indians' top hitters, swatting at a .296 clip on the season. He is a senior. Figone, a senior, is another second-year man on the all-star team, having been named to the first string NPAL nine last year. He held the third base spot for the Indians and was a mainstay on defense. He batted a healthy .321 for the season, second high for the club. Last year Figone won the league batting crown.

JEFF VARSITY baseball club, the first to win 20 games in a single season, wound up third in PAL standings with a 6-4 mark, losing only to the co-champions. Their overall season mark, under tutelage of Coach Lou Martin, was 20-9. Coupled with the frosh-soph team's mark, Jefferson's baseball teams won a total of 38 games this year, losing only 10, for an excellent .740 win percentage. Varsity players shown are (left to right, top row): Bob Gaggero, Bob Bailey,* Lowell Creighton,* Jim Honeywell, Al Figone,* Rich Guisti,* John Murphy, Tex Prentice, Joe Freeman; (second row) Larry Kennedy, Ron Cryer, Ken Smith, Bob Grubb, Ray Vuillemainroy, Bill Storch, Rich Watson, Herb Frost; (bottom row) Managers David Haberman and John Finley. (* Named to All-PAL Team.)

CO-CHAMPIONS of the 1955 PAL frosh-soph baseball league are these members of the Jefferson High school team. In winning 18 games, losing only one, the yearlings compiled the best baseball record in the local high school's history. The team was coached by Byron Van Alstyne. Pictured (left to right, top row) are: Don Anderson, Ed Leveroni, Ted Hanson, Delmar Scott, Dick Fudge, Bob Berry, Paul Tapia, Tony Stagnaro, Barry Haanen, Jim Wilson, Larry Pottinger; (second row) Mike Calvello, Wayne Lewis, Gary Ryan, Lou Arrighi, Bill Strassburger, Leroy Franzoia, Ino Patron, Mike Wedlake and Bob Nunes; (bottom row) Managers John Nichols, Ron Bloom, Gordon Tydingco and Carl Mecchi.

THE RECORD

SPORTS

Al Figone Is Chosen Top Athlete

Al Figone, versatile Jefferson High school player, was named the year's outstanding senior athlete Wednesday at the annual "Block J" dinner held in the school cafeteria.

Figone participated in football, basketball and baseball and was yesterday named to the second team of the All-NPAL baseball club.

He narrowly beat out Rich Guisti, outstanding baseball and football player.

Lowell Creighton, senior pitcher, was selected as outstanding baseball player. Harry Sampson, rugged tackle, was chosen as top football player, while Babe Anguillo was selected as the year's best basketball player

Jim Rector was declared the top trackman and Roger Saunders was named best swimmer.

Shortstop Ken Smith's .345 average won him a trophy as the season's best hitter.

Team and individual trophies went to the championship frosh-soph baseball team.

USF's basketball coach Phil Woolpert, who led his club to the NCAA championship, was guest speaker, addressing the group on the importance of good players on a winning team. He said coaching played only a small part and that a great team was made by outstanding players, not superior coaching.

Jim Honeywell, "Block J" president, was master of ceremonies.

Broadmoor Yanks Take Over Second In S. Sunset League

Broadmoor Yankees took over undisputed second place in the South Sunset league Saturday with a 11-4 win over St. Stephen's.

Local pitcher Terry Christman shackled the Stephen's gang with five hits, two walks, while striking out nine batsmen.

Dixie Howell was the king of swat for Broadmoor, blasting three hits in four attempts and accounting for three of his team's runs.

Picking up singles were Bruce Hix, Tom McHugh, Christman, Bill Goodwin, Ron Roller and Mike Kearny.

A four-team play-off will be held to determine the champion.

In a practice outing Monday at Marchbanks the Broadmoor Indians set down the Yanks, 10-7.

The much-improved Indians held Yanks to six hits. Three of these were by Christman, while Howell wound up with a pair for himself. Bruce Hix got the only other Yank safety.

Goodwin worked the first four innings for the Yanks, with Hix taking over in relief.

Cap Spoils Jeff Frosh Perfect Record in 10th

Capuchino spoiled a perfect season for Jefferson High school's frosh-soph baseball team last Thursday, as they outlasted the Indians, 2-1, in a 10-inning marathon that marked the end of the PAL season.

Ed Leveroni's five-hit, 17 strikeout performance wasn't quite good enough, as the Indians were held to three safeties and fizzled in the final innings, both in fielding and hitting.

An error by usually flawless second baseman Ino Patron, on a throw from Catcher Bill Strassburger set up the winning run in the tenth frame.

Patron got the toss from home plate in time to tag the runner out, but dropped the ball. The next batter singled to drive home the clincher.

The Indians got their only tally in the fifth inning on a four-base swat by Paul Tapia. Mike Wedlake singled in the inning but died on base. Only other Jeff hit came in the seventh, a single by Leveroni.

With the score deadlocked at 1-1 at the end of seven, the Indians failed to hit in both of their next innings

In the tenth Leveroni made it to second on a walk and a sacrifice with only one away, but the next two batters struck out

The loss gave Coach Byron Van Alstyne's yearling nine an 18-1 season mark. Their 8-1 league record left them in a tie for the championship with South San Francisco.

The 18-1 record was the best ever compiled by a Jefferson baseball team.

Judge Relieves Teacher Of Car Collision Blame

Case against Eugene E. Grant, 28, 119 W. Moltke street and a Westlake school teacher, was dismissed last week in Municipal court. Grant was recently cited for failing to yield right of way to another car at Junipero Serra boulevard and Alemany. The teacher was held not responsible for the collision.

PACK 63 BLASTS 62, 13-2; PACK 241 NEXT

In a hotly contested ball game Saturday, Cub Pack 63 blasted Cub Pack 62 for a 13-2 victory. Leading hitter for 63 was Bob DeGroot who got 3 for 3. Pack 63 ball club is under the leadership of Mike Kerekes, while Eugene Johnson is in charge of 62. There was a large turnout of boys on hand for each side.

Tomorrow (Saturday at Marchbanks Park at 9:30 a.m. Pack 63 will again tangle with Westlake Pack 241.

Pack 63 will hold Pack meeting tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m. at 255 Vista Grande avenue.

VIKINGS NOTCH SOCCER TITLE WITH TWO WINS

Everett Heick's Vikings rolled to two shutout victories last week to capture the Broadmoor Soccer league and wind up the season undefeated.

In Tuesday play the Vikes whipped Seven Fours, 2-0, on goals by Jim Heick and Terry Tracy.

Thursday Mercury was thumped, 3-0, by the champions as Heick, Dixie Howell and John Hess tallied.

The double triumphs gave the Vikes a season record of five wins, no losses and three ties for a total of 13 points.

Hotspurs, defeating Caldonians 4-1 last week, wound up in undisputed second with four wins, one tie and three losses for nine points.

George Mueller ran his scoring total to 13 with three tallies for the Hotspurs, and wound up with league scoring honors.

Bill Hix notched the other Hotspur scor, while Bill Dougherty got the losers' only goal.

Members of the championship team were Jim Heick, Dixie Howell, John Hess, Bob Roller, Mike Kearny, John Summers and Terry Tracy.

Each player on the winning team will receive an individual medal award.

High scorers for each team included: Hotspurs, Mueller, 13; Vikings, Heick, 8; Seven Fours, Larry Bennet, 4; Caldonians, Bill Dougherty, 4; Mercury, Ken Magoon, 2.

Next year's league will consist of 11-man teams, according to Head Coach Randy Hix.

The contest is held to attract high school seniors to careers in the petroleum industry.

Castagnetto And Hansen Win Golf

Ed Castagnetto fired a 69 over the Lake Merced course to win low gross in the First Annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tournament last Thursday.

Einar Hansen shot a 76 with a six handicap to win low net with 70.

A total of 87 competitors showed up for the tournament and evening dinner.

J. Weatherly Kemp and George Studinger came within three feet of the pin on the 135-yard eighth to tie for the hole-in-one competition.

Sundry golfers won free dinners from Cas'n Ray for placing their shots within the white circle on the eighth, while others won a half-pint of liquor for parring the first hole.

Lyal Ingersoll, local school trustee, won the pink toilet seat booby prize with his 145 round for the 18 holes.

The tournament is slated to become an annual affair. This year's tourney was organized by Bill Sweeney Jr., Bill Kennedy and Robert Hunter, assisted by Pete Markovich and Nate Pearlman.

MOSSI GETS FIRST WIN FOR INDIANS

Daly City's Don Mossi, left-handed relief pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, was credited with his first victory of the year Tuesday as he set down the Baltimore Orioles with two hits in six innings after taking over for Bob Feller.

Mossi relieved Feller in the seventh inning and worked until the 13th, when the Tribe won out, 2-1, on a double by San Dente that scored Dave Philley from first base.

Mossi also got one hit in two tries for the Indians.

Towne & Beach Lady Keglers Win 775 Classic League

Towne & Beach Tog Shop's women's bowling team knocked over Papagayo Room two out of three in the 775 Classic league playoffs held at Downtown Bowl recently.

The victories gave the local pin lassies, first half winners, the overall season crown. They had wound up second to Papagayo in the second stanza of the circuit.

The Orin Benders, sponsors of the team, were presented with a handsome trophy from the league in ceremonies held last week at the Tog shop.

Mildred Main paced the ladies team, finishing with a seasonal average of 176. Other averages were: Jo Laskey (an employee at the Tog shop), 167; Winnie Berger, 153; Hart, 157; Hildy Hansen, 147.

Mrs. Main posted the season's high individual series, notching a sizzling 634 during mid-season play. Mrs. Laskey's 244 bowled in the playoffs was high individual game. The distaff club amassed their high team game, 899, in the playoffs.

JEFFS LOSE PAL GOLF CROWN AS GALLI SHOOTS 95

The PAL golf championship virtually slipped through Jefferson High school's hands Tuesday as Gary Galli, four-year veteran, tried out a new set of woods with disastrous results.

Galli shot a 95, his worst score in four years of varsity competition, as the Indians wound up six strokes shy of Lincoln and Burlingame, co-champions.

Galli kept pace with the leaders on the first nine with a 44. A similar score in the back nine would have given the Jeffs the title. But Galli blew up and totalled 51 on the final nine, giving the Indians a four-man score of 254. The winners each had 248.

Irony of the day was that Coach Mike Orlich picked Galli to play over the No. 6 man, Al Harris.

Harris went around with a Capuchino twosome just for practice and shot an 85. This score, combined with Bryan Van Paul's 83, Bob Penn's 85, and Wayne Guisti's 91, would have given the Jeff linksmen the championship by a four-stroke margin.

A win yesterday would have given the Indians the overall season crown. As it was they finished in a tie for third with 5½ points, behind Lincoln's seven. The three points for first in the championship match would have given the locals the edge.

The Indians were defending champs. Three years ago they lost the crown by one stroke when their No. 2 man came in with a 95.
